MEMBER NEWSLETTER

One of our valued employees, Jan Kitching, retired at the end of last year. After many years at OLMECU, Jan is retiring from her position as Office Manager. Jan has led with compassion and unwavering dedication living out the mission of our Credit Union. Under Jan’s leadership, OLMECU has experienced extensive growth. She has served us well, and much of OLMECU’s success can be attributed to her visionary leadership. As we move ahead, Jan continues to assist and share her knowledge with our office staff. A big thank you to Jan, we are so grateful for her service.

We are pleased to announce that Cris Egan has stepped up as Office Manager. Cris brings a wealth of knowledge, experience, and vision that will be crucial to OLMECU’s continued success. We are confident that the future of OLMECU and the needs of our members are in great hands with Cris at the helm.

We would be remiss not to mention our Office Assistant Manager, Diana McNulty. Diana has been a valuable asset to OLMECU, bringing a wealth of knowledge, ideas, and enthusiasm, and we are thankful that she chose to share her time and skills with us!

OLMECU is different from other financial institutions. We have a dedicated staff who care about our members and their financial well being. As a reminder, because of your membership, your immediate family is eligible to join OLMECU as well. That means that your spouse, children, parents, and grandparents can now become OLMECU members regardless of where they live. Don’t keep us a secret! We would love to add your family to our family here at OLMECU.

Happy Mother’s Day and Happy Father’s Day!

“One hundred individuals, saving their money individually, could not provide themselves with much protection, but let them organize a credit union and their opportunity to help themselves multiplied.”

-Edward Filene, founding father of the U.S. Credit Union

IN THE NEWS

Recent multiple bank failures began to rattle the news in early March and the natural reaction was one of fear and concern. OLMECU is different from most financial institutions . . . you own it, and ownership is real at your credit union. Our Credit Union Board is about member protection, member service, and the local community, not chasing risky returns. OLMECU is closely supervised and regulated by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). Your deposits are guaranteed up to $250,000 by NCUA. We are a strong, safe, and sound financial institution. The bottom line is that you can count on OLMECU!
